HEI Input:

DVV Clarifications	HEI Response
HEI has asserted involvement in certain activities that demonstrate minimal interaction or service to the broader community beyond its campus confines. Current claimed activities are more like phraseology pivot around awareness programs, slogan raising, and rallies, likewise. Events oriented solely towards its own student body or those serving as mere awareness campaigns or celebratory occasions, or rallies lack the fundamental essence required by this metric. In light of this observation, HEI is urged to reassess its assertions. In the humble opinion of DVV, HEI should have retract its claim over the activities such as awareness programs, celebrations of international or national days, for example: i. Yoga awareness ii. Tobacco Awareness iii. Drug Free Tamilnadu iv. Dengue awareness v. International womens day vi. Voters day vii. Road safety rally viii. Speech competition for environment awareness program ix. Blood Donation Camp x. Election Awareness ;;	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ HEI have been retracted its claim over the activities such as awareness programs, celebrations of international or national days, for example: i. Rather, HEI should pivot around initiatives such as: i. Work done by NSS students such as Tree Plantation, Blood Donation Camp, Temple cleaning, etc, or any other endeavor that yields tangible benefits.;;

HEI must provide the evidence for all the activities it would claim in AY2021-22, & Ay2022-23 as follows:

- i. Geo-tagged photographs (preferably accompanied by banners) with apt captions and dates.
- ii. Objectives outlined for each program must be articulated with precision, particularly focusing on the intended demographic(s) that the HEI aimed to cater to.
- iii. Any additional pertinent documents, such as media reports covering the events, appropriately captioned and dated, would be appreciated.
