DVV Clarifications	HEI Response
Eight MOUs have been signed during the last 4-5 months of assessment period, therefore, excluded. Furthermore, the terms and objective for MOUs are grossly general and do not disclose any specialization of other party. Additionally, Some of them have not been signed by second party, or not signed by at least two witnesses, or not notarized, or not endorsed by any identifier. Therefore, warrants correction and modification. ; An MOU or agreement for faculty exchange requires a substantive exchange involving any resource—human, instrumental, laboratory, etc.—whether for a regular course, a portion thereof, or any Value-Added Course (VAC). Online activities or workshops do not qualify as actual exchanges. Similarly, invited talks or lectures on topics such as the importance of economics, or other one-day interactions, do not meet the criteria for an actual exchange. Consequently, these brief interactions do not justify the signing of an MOU for their organization. ;; HEI to provide, only for academic year 2022-	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ HEI has been retracted the Eight MOUs that have been signed during the last 4-5 months of assessment period.</li> <li>➤ HEI has provided, 1.
